COL. ROOSEVELT CARRIES OHIO

Returns Received Show That Roosevelt Will Have 30 Delegates—Harmon Has Big Lead Over Wilson.

COLUMBUS, May 22.—Complete returns indicate that Roosevelt and Harmon will control the republican and democratic state convention that will elect the six delegates at large. Roosevelt has elected at least 30 district delegates, and will probably have 32. Roosevelt's conceded Taft only six of the districts throughout the state. Harmon's preferential primary plurality is estimated at 15,000 over Wilson. The Harmonites concede to Wilson five districts, but the Wilsonites claim at least nine, two of which are doubtful. The democratic state convention will be held on June 4, and the republican on June 3.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—President Taft arrived here at 9 o'clock this morning. He immediately went to the White House for a rest, preparatory to starting his New Jersey campaign.

OYSTER BAY, May 22.—Assured that he had carried all but ten of the delegates in Ohio, Roosevelt said: "The result of the Ohio primaries settles the contest. Naturally I'm pleased with the impulse judgment of Ohio. I believe we could win without the Ohio vote. Our victory shows it would be hopeless to try to beat us at Chicago by sneaking our delegates from Washington, Indiana, Kentucky and elsewhere." Roosevelt was showered with congratulatory telegrams. He starts his New Jersey campaign Thursday morning.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, May 22.—Returns from 1,851 precincts out of 5,163 in Ohio that were tabulated at noon, give Harmon 43,755 and Wilson 34,178. It is impossible to give the total figures on Taft and Roosevelt because they were not voted on directly.

POLITICAL SYNOPSIS SUMMED UP BY REPUBLICAN LEADERS

Harry New Says Taft Will Be Nominated On First Ballot—La Follette Says Not Always Man Who Goes to Convention With Most Delegates That Is Nominated.

Republican leaders today summed up their opinions of what will happen at the National Republican Convention in Chicago as follows:

Theodore Roosevelt: "Mr. Taft expects to see Penrose, Lorimer, Barnes and company override the will of the people, but there will be no toleration by the republican party of such action."

Col. Harry S. New, Indianapolis, chairman of the sub-committee on arrangements for the national convention: "I predict the nomination of President Taft on the first ballot. It will be a hard-fought convention."

Franklin Murphy, former governor of New Jersey: "Taft has enough votes to nominate him on the first ballot. If Roosevelt is a candidate he will be a 'rump' candidate, and go to destruction as all persons go."

Alexander H. Revell, Chicago, chairman of the National Roosevelt Committee: "Roosevelt will be nominated on the first ballot and have from 50 to 100 votes to spare."

Manager W. B. McKinley: "There is no question but that the president will not only be renominated at Chicago, but that his friends will control the organization of the convention and prepare the platform of the republican party."

Senator Robert M. La Follette: "I will be nominated at the Chicago convention. It is not always the man who goes to the convention with the most delegates who is nominated."

SACRAMENTO, May 22.—What action Governor Johnson will take in the San Diego trouble has not been revealed up to today, as he has absolutely declined to make any comment whatever upon the situation. ## MISCREANTS PURLOIN EDIBLES AT A PARTY

Last evening several of the young ladies of Tonopah gave a social dance at the K. of C. hall. The affair was well attended and dancing was indulged in until midnight when the supper dance was announced. The committee in charge of the spread repaired to the banquet room to prepare the feed, only to find that some miscreants had gained admittance to the building from the rear and purloined all of the eatables. The theft was reported to Officers Donoghue, who immediately began a systematic search throughout the city for the pies, cakes, sandwiches and doughnuts. Not a trace of the scoundrels could be found during the night and the case was placed in the hands of Chief Smith this morning, who is following several clues, entertaining hope that he will soon have the wrongdoers in the city lockup. The dancing party had to content themselves with a dinner at one of the local grills.
